

Free To Be Me

Are you aged 11-19 and living in the Wakefield district?

- Do you want to understand more about yourself and other people's identities?
- Are you neurodivergent and want a safe space to explore who you are?
- Do you feel other spaces for young people aren't right for you?
- Do you want to get to know other young people exploring their identity in the Wakefield district?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, then Free To Be Me might be just what you're looking for!

We offer a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment where you can learn more about yourself and others.

Are you a parent/carer of a young person exploring their identity within the Wakefield district?

Free To Be Me provides a safe space for parents/carers to socialise with other parents/carers while learning more about what it means to be LGBTQIA+ and neurodivergent in the region.

Free To Be Me holds regular family friendly events, strengthening family bonds while having lots of fun.

All young people deserve to be free to explore who they are.
